

Affiliate of Nesco Resource Announces Acquisition of DePasquale Staffing Services
Cleveland, Ohio
October 17, 2011

DPSS, LLC, an affiliate of Nesco Resource, announced today it has acquired DePasquale Staffing Services, located in Williamsport, PA.

“DePasquale Staffing has a long-standing reputation for providing quality service to their dedicated clients, and we are excited to welcome them into our growing organization”, stated Tim McPherson, the President and COO of Nesco Resource. “The City of Williamsport and the surrounding Lycoming County area show great promise for Nesco Resource, with the expanding job market throughout the region.”

“It was a pleasure to find an acquirer with similar corporate culture and spirit to that of DePasquale Staffing Services. Nesco Resource is a fast-growing leader within the staffing industry, with very strong financial backing, stability and tenure” said Peter DePasquale, the Founder of DePasquale Staffing. “I look forward to seeing our organization and staff members continue to grow as part of a larger company.”

Nesco Resource is currently ranked #52 overall in the Staffing Industry Analysts 2011 rankings of the Top USA Temporary Staffing firms, and holds a #16 national market position within the Engineering staffing niche. The acquisition of DePasquale Staffing Services is the 4th such transaction completed in 2011 by Nesco Resource.

About Nesco Resource

Nesco Resource was founded in 1956 in Cleveland, Ohio as an engineering and design firm. Today, Nesco Resource is a recognized industry leader that provides a full range of Human Capital solutions within the Engineering & IT, Clerical & Light Industrial, Accounting and Finance sectors. Additionally, Nesco offers specialty services such as in-house design and drafting, vendor management solutions, on-site operations and much more. The company’s clients range from dynamic start-up organizations to many leading Fortune 500 companies. Learn more about Nesco Resource at www.nescoresource.com.